Separated Parent Support & Training Workshops

What's it all about?

Kids Come First provide bespoke workshops for separating or divorcing parents. Our unique child-focused training program delivers specialist support for all parents who seek to help their children through their separation process. We offer expert guidance on forming collaborative co-parenting partnerships beyond separation. As professional trainers with family mediation and counselling experience we are able to assist parents at all stages of their family transition, whatever the circumstances.

How does the Kids Come First program help parents?

Few parents take the decision to separate lightly. The end of a parenting relationship is a dramatic change for the whole family. Some parents struggle to maintain positive communication and create an effective co-parenting relationship beyond separation. This can have a profoundly negative impact on their children! We aim to help parents find collaborative solutions and keep matters out of the family courts by providing the right support and bespoke guidance when they need it most!

Our mission is to help parents cope well so their children can too!

What options are available?

Parents can book a bespoke solo workshop to attend on their own or arrange joint co-parenting consultation provided they are both in agreement to attend.

How can I make an enquiry or referral?

Email kidscomefirstuk@mail.com to request our Booking Form or call 0778 9497275 for an initial confidential chat. If you are a family law barrister; solicitor; mediator; social worker; etc. please share our info with clients so they can get in touch directly.

How can I attend a workshop?

Workshops are available via Zoom so your location is not an issue. As far as possible we aim to accommodate your schedule with sessions available Mon-Sat and evenings.

What are the costs?

Solo workshop fees start from £300 (2hr session)

Joint workshop fees start from £200 per parent (2hr session).

What if I am in family court proceedings?

Booking a workshop will help you focus on your own positive solo parenting and enable you to demonstrate an understanding of your children's needs & rights.

We issue certificates of attendance to parents who are in court proceedings.
